

Business Management Technologies

---

The Business Management Technologies programs prepare students for entry-level positions in a wide range of business organizations and situations. Degree programs are offered in Business Financial Services, Business Management, and Marketing Management. A Paralegal Certificate is also available. All of the degree programs include cooperative education experience, which provides insight on dealing with day-to-day responsibilities in business settings.