

Business Management Technologies

The Business Management Technologies programs prepare students for entry-level positions in a wide range of business organizations and situations. Degree programs are offered in Business Management and Marketing Management. All of the degree programs include cooperative education experience, which provides insight on dealing with day-to-day responsibilities in business settings.

Certificate programs are offered in Entrepreneurship, Paralegal, and Real Estate.