

MID - Multimedia Information Design

Courses

MID 100 Multimedia Information Design Career Exploration Seminar

1 Credit. 0 Lecture Hour. 2 Lab Hours.

A course on using research and personal reflection to develop a strong foundation for selecting an academic program/major and planning a career related to Multimedia Information Design. Topics include: analyzing interests, abilities, and values; reviewing academic and personal requirements for related programs/majors; and examining career outcomes including salary, job availability, advancement opportunities, and other factors.

Prerequisites: None

MID 120 Drawing Fundamentals for Multimedia Information Design

3 Credits. 2 Lecture Hours. 3 Lab Hours.

A course on fundamental drawing approaches using various media and techniques. Topics include: developing observational skills; study of perspective; and describing objects in terms of line, value, shape, lighting, and texture.

Prerequisites: None

MID 125 Storyboarding

2 Credits. 1 Lecture Hour. 2 Lab Hours.

A course on fundamentals of storyboarding for video, animation, multimedia, and web. Topics include: traditional drawing and digital illustration, image acquisition and composition, shot framing and description, and industry standards for labeling.

Prerequisites: None

MID 190 Career Preparation: Multimedia Information Design

2 Credits. 2 Lecture Hours. 0 Lab Hour.

A course on career planning for students seeking employment in Multimedia Information Design fields. Topics include: self-assessment, career research, resume development, interview skills and job hunting strategies, and cooperative education policies and procedures.

Prerequisites: ART 125 or AVP 100 (minimum grade C for both)